property furnished for repair, maintenance, overhaul, or modification. Government-furnished property also includes contractor-acquired property if the contractor-acquired property is a deliverable under a cost contract when accepted by the Government for continued use under the contract.

Government property means all property owned or leased by the Government. Government property includes both Government-furnished property and contractor-acquired property. Government property includes material, equipment, special tooling, special test equipment, and real property. Government property does not include intellectual property and software.

Material means property that may be consumed or expended during the performance of a contract, component parts of a higher assembly, or items that lose their individual identity through incorporation into an enditem. Material does not include equipment, special tooling, special test equipment or real property.

Nonseverable means property that cannot be removed after construction or installation without substantial loss of value or damage to the installed property or to the premises where installed.

Precious metals means silver, gold, platinum, palladium, iridium, osmium, rhodium, and ruthenium.

Property means all tangible property, both real and personal.

Property Administrator means an authorized representative of the contracting officer appointed in accordance with agency procedures, responsible for administering the contract requirements and obligations relating to Government property in the possession of a contractor.

Property records means the records created and maintained by the contractor in support of its stewardship responsibilities for the management of Government property.

Provide means to furnish, as in Government-furnished property, or to acquire, as in contractor-acquired property.

Real property. See Federal Management Regulation 102-71.20 (41 CFR 102-71.20).

Sensitive property means property potentially dangerous to the public safety or security if stolen, lost, or misplaced, or that shall be subject to exceptional physical security, protection, control, and accountability. Examples include weapons, ammunition, explosives, controlled substances, radioactive materials, hazardous materials or wastes, or precious metals.

Surplus property means excess personal property not required by any Federal agency as determined by the Administrator of the General Services Administration (GSA).

45.102 Policy.

- (a) Contractors are ordinarily required to furnish all property necessary to perform Government contracts.
- (b) Contracting officers shall provide property to contractors only when it is clearly demonstrated—
- (1) To be in the Government's best interest:
- (2) That the overall benefit to the acquisition significantly outweighs the increased cost of administration, including ultimate property disposal;
- (3) That providing the property does not substantially increase the Government's assumption of risk; and
- (4) That Government requirements cannot otherwise be met.
- (c) The contractor's inability or unwillingness to supply its own resources is not sufficient reason for the furnishing or acquisition of property.
- (d) Exception. Property provided under contracts for repair, maintenance, overhaul, or modification is not subject to the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section.

45.103 General.

- (a) Agencies shall—
- (1) Allow and encourage contractors to use voluntary consensus standards (see FAR 11.101(b)) and industry-leading practices and standards to manage Government property in their possession:

Federal Acquisition Regulation

- (2) Eliminate to the maximum practical extent any competitive advantage a prospective contractor may have by using Government property;
- (3) Ensure maximum practical reutilization of contractor inventory for government purposes;
- (4) Require contractors to use Government property already in their possession to the maximum extent practical in performing Government contracts:
- (5) Charge appropriate rentals when the property is authorized for use on other than a rent-free basis; and
- (6) Require contractors to justify retaining Government property not needed for contract performance and to declare property as excess when no longer needed for contract performance.
- (b) Agencies will not generally require contractors to establish property management systems that are separate from a contractor's established procedures, practices, and systems used to account for and manage contractorowned property.

45.104 Responsibility and liability for Government property.

- (a) Generally, contractors are not held liable for loss, theft, damage or destruction of Government property under the following types of contracts:
  - (1) Cost-reimbursement contracts.
  - (2) Time-and-material contracts.
  - (3) Labor-hour contracts.
- (4) Fixed-price contracts awarded on the basis of submission of certified cost or pricing data.
- (b) The contracting officer may revoke the Government's assumption of risk when the property administrator determines that the contractor's property management practices are inadequate and/or present an undue risk to the Government.
- (c) A prime contractor that provides Government property to a subcontractor shall not be relieved of any responsibility to the Government that the prime contractor may have under the terms of the prime contract.

45.105 Contractors' property management system compliance.

- (a) The agency responsible for contract administration shall conduct an analysis of the contractor's property management policies, procedures, practices, and systems. This analysis shall be accomplished as frequently as conditions warrant, in accordance with agency procedures.
- (b) The property administrator shall notify the contractor in writing when the contractor's property management system does not comply with contractual requirements, and shall request prompt correction of deficiencies and shall request from the contractor a corrective action plan, including a schedule for correction of the deficiencies and shall provide a schedule for their completion. If the contractor does not correct the deficiencies in accordance with the schedule, the contracting officer shall notify the contractor, in writing, that failure to take the required corrective action(s) may result in-
- (1) Revocation of the Government's assumption of risk for loss, theft, damage or destruction; and/or
- (2) The exercise of other rights or remedies available to the contracting officer.
- (c) If the contractor fails to take the required corrective action(s) in response to the notification provided by the contracting officer in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, the contractor officer shall notify the contractor in writing of any Government decision to apply the remedies described in paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) of this section.
- (d) When the property administrator determines that a reported case of loss, theft, damage or destruction of Government property constitutes a risk assumed by the Government, the property administrator shall notify the contractor in writing that they are granted relief of responsibility in accordance with FAR clause 52.245–1(f)(1)(vii). Where the property administrator determines that the risk of loss is not assumed by the Government, the property administrator shall forward a recommendation requesting
